I am passionate about helping clients navigate complex legal issues in evolving industries so that they can focus on continuing to solve critical energy, sustainability and technology challenges.

Mariah Figlietti's practice focuses on advising companies on a wide range of corporate matters including corporate formation, financings, and general corporate governance. Mariah works with early-stage companies and investors working primarily in clean energy, sustainability and technology sectors.

Mariah is an active member of the firm's Energy Project Finance and Development practice, working with sponsors, investors, and developers on all aspects of renewable energy project development, tax equity, sponsor equity and debt financings, acquisitions, tax credits and state incentives.
